Bulgaria Has Concentrated 150,000 Troops on the Turkish Border

IS SATISFIED
WITH CONCESSIONS

Offered by Entente—May Receive Financial Assistance from Powers

A dispatch to Mattino from Saloniki says that Bulgaria has concentrated 150-000 troops on the Turkish border.

Recent news dispatches from Sofia have agreed that Bulgaria is satisfied with the territorial concessions offered her by the entente powers as the price of her aid in the war. The consent of Serbia and Greece to the terms is awaited before the allies can bring the negotiations with Bulgaria to a successful conclusion. If Bulgaria declares war on Turkey, it is understood that she will receive general financial assistance from the powers.

MONTPELIER

Engineers Find Old Boundary Mark Between City and Blanchard Land.

Efforts of Engineer Dewart of Burlington and Engineer George A. Reed of this city with City Atty. Hunt and George Blanchard to locate some mark whereby the street line between the city and the Blanchard land on Main street might be determined were finally rewarded yesterday afternoon, for a post was found two and a half feet beneath the sidewalk in front of Frank Adams' store, which agrees with an old deed of the Willard block. A man was employed from morning until nearly evening digging up the sidewalk in front of the Blanchard block and the edge of an old brick sidewalk was finally located, it being about seven feet from the present curb nearer to the Blanchard building. The post discovered is in line with the other land marks along the street and is believed by the city engineer to bear out the contention of the city as to the street line.

GEORGIA WILL BRING
MOB TO JUSTICE

Frank's Slayers Will be Brought to Justice Through Her Officials and Courts Says Governor.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 21.—Governor Harris let it be known yesterday that the people of Georgia would resent outside interference or advice in dealing with conditions growing out of the lynching of Leo Frank.

"The lynching," he said, "was a crime against the civilization of our state and a blot upon Georgia's fair name that cannot be erased. None of us approve of mob violence or lynch law. I have and will continue to exert every power at my command to bring the members of the mob to justice.

"But if they are brought to justice it will be through the courageous efforts of Georgia officials and courts, supported by the sentiment of the citizens of the state, and not through the newspaper editorial or rewards coming from other states."

The governor has received many telegrams and letters in the last two days urging him to take decisive action.

PLAIN EVERY-DAY CITIZEN.

President Strolls in Philadelphia and Lunches in Public—Not Recognized.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—President Wilson slipped away from the White House soon after 6 o'clock yesterday morning and before Washington was awake was off to Philadelphia in a motor car to visit his oculist. He returned last evening by train, after having broken some presidential precedents.
He had been lost on the road, had lunch unannounced in the public dining-room of a Philadelphia hotel, strolled through the streets of the business section of Philadelphia, rode back to Washington in public railroad car and driven to the White House in a hired automobile.

The president realized it was unlikely that official details of the sinking of the Washington before to-day and took the opportunity to make his annual visit to the oculist and spend several hours in quiet, riding in the country.

CYMRIC WAS CONVOYED

Accompanied by Five British War Ships Out of War Zone

PASSENGERS SAW
SUBMARINES

Sailed in Momentary Expectation of Death Blow to the Ship

New York, Aug. 21.—The passengers and crew of the steamer Cymric asserted on their arrival to-day that the steamer was convoyed for 36 hours from Liverpool.

The Cymric sailed Aug. 11 accompanied by five British warships until the war zone had been crossed. Several passengers said that the periscope of a submarine was seen, but the officers declined to discuss the assertion.

The Cymric took practically the same course as the Arabic and carried 189 passengers. From her departure to the outside of the war zone, the Cymric sailed in momentary readiness for her death blow.

As she left the Mersey, a black ball on a signal pole on shore showed that submarines were about. The sailors immediately made provisions for all the lifeboats, adjusted new ropes and swung them out. The passengers were assembled in assigned places. The convoy consisted of a converted yacht, torpedo boat destroyers and small cruisers.

200 people, led by C. O. Burt, E. C. Tinkham, Munn Boardman and Walter Morgan.

The parade was reviewed by Gov. C. W.
Gates, the speaker of the afternoon, at the residence on Main street of P. D.
Pike, a member of the Senate at the same time with the governor. When the parade ended the afternoon program was carried out as follows: Selection, Stowe Military band; prayer, Rev. Lemuel Davis; singing, "Auld Lang Syne"; original poem, "Old Home Week," by Mrs. B. A.
Shaw, read by Mrs. J. E. Luce; remarks by Rollo G. Reynolds, principal of the People's academy of Morrisville and former principal of Stowe high school, who spoke upon "Preparedness."

Pres. Harris introduced Gov. Gates, who gave a very interesting address. The unique system of state aid in road building in Vermont was spoken of as one step in the development of the state. Other lines should be developed in the same way, especially the homes in Vermont. The governor's remarks were enthusiastically applauded. The program closed with the singing of "America."

An informal reception to the governor was given. A large number were present during the exercises.

The governor will visit Smugglers' Notch to-day and be a guest for several the rooms were of sweet peas and green.

In the parlor an arch of green and sweet

The bride party, led by the groom and his best man, Arthur Austin, came down from the rooms above promptly at the appointed hour, followed by the ring-they were immediately conducted to their places, where they were soon made

CHASED THE
BURGLARS

But Latter Made Their Escape from Their Pursuers

AT EAST GRANVILLE
LATE LAST NIGHT

Pursuit Getting Hot, Burglars Fire Revolvers into Crowd

East Granville, Aug. 21.—Burglars broke into the Central Vermont station here at about midnight last night, but were scared away before they secured any plunder.

The presence of the two men was discovered by a citizen of the village, who got a number of men together and proceeded to the station. They were seen by the burglars, who made a break to get away. They were followed in hot haste and fearing capture the thieves fired on their pursuers. They finally eluded the latter and it is thought made their escape on a freight train to Northfield.
Chief Donahue of the latter place was notified but found no trace of them in that village. He then went to Montpelier Junction, but it was so foggy when the train reached that point that they successfully made their escape.

The two men appeared to be about 22 or 23, were dressed in dark clothes and wore light caps.

Detective N. D. Bolton of the Central Vermont Railway Co. is in Montpelier today on the lookout for the thieves.

THIEVES WORKED AT LEISURE

Burglars at Pittsfield Depot Were in No Haste.

Rutland, Aug. 21.—The police of this city and at Burlington have been notified to be on the lookout for two boys, 16 and 18 years of age, one of them wearing rubber boots several sizes too large for him, who are suspected of being guilty of burglarizing the Rutland railroad depot at Pittsfield Wednesday night, the break having been discovered when the station was opened for business early yesterday morning. Suspicion falls on the two boys because two young strangers stopped the previous evening at a house in the village and asked the way to the depot, which is rather remote from the center of the town. Word of the break was sent to Special Officer John W. Bralton of this city, who investigates such cases.

The burglars gained entrance by means of a window. They broke open the cash drawer but found in it only 22 cents, which they took. The case containing mileage books was not disturbed and nothing else was taken from the office.

The unwelcome visitors evidently had no fear of being disturbed and they worked leisurely. Taking a kerosene lamp from the waiting room to furnish illumination for their operations, they entered the freight department and prior several packages of freight.

They took some ham and other eatables.
It is hard to determine just how much freight was taken. A trunk in another part of the depot, which belonged to a Pittsfield man, was opened and some articles are missing from it. Probably nothing of great value was stolen. Sealed letters, which had been left in the office, ready for mailing, were torn open, the thieves evidently looking for money.

The station is closed at about 7 p. m.
There is a supposition that the burglars may have gone on the train leaving Rutland at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

RAID AT GRANVILLE.

Produces a Barrel and a Half of Ale-Cintullo Held.

Late last night Deputy Sheriff Dennis Donahue of Barre Town and Deputy Sheriff George L. Morris of this city, armed with a warrant issued at the request of State's Attorney F. E. Gleason, went to upper Granville and raided the apartments in the Cogswell building occupied by Llama Cintullo. On the search and seizure complaint, the deputies made a careful examination of the premises and seized one barrel of Mod-ell pale ale and a half barrel of Worcester ale as alleged contraband. Before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning, bail was fixed at $500 on a selling charge preferred against Cintullo and $50 on wet goods. Cintullo was not asked to make a plea, as a date for the trial, should be plead not guilty, cannot be set before the arrival of the state's attorney. The alleged contraband was brought to Barre and put under lock and key at police headquarters.

The respondent has figured in similar proceedings in municipal and county courts before.
